A STORY ABOUT BISHOP SIMPSON.

The Bishop made his first appearance in Lancaster on Sunday morning very unexpectedly to himself and "the people called Methodists" of that city. His home was in Pittsburgh. He was traveling over the Pennsylvania Railroad to Philadelphia, and a breakdown detained him over Sunday in Lancaster. After breakfast he suntered out to find a Methodist church, and walking up Duke street he met a good Methodist, the late Carpenter McCleery, who engaged the Bishop in conversation. Dr. Simpson was plainly dressed, and looked anything else than a Bishop is supposed to look. Brother McCleery judged from his conversation that he was a local preacher, and the good Bishop did not enlighten him to the contrary. The preacher in charge of the Duke-street Methodist Episcopal Church finally arrived, and the Bishop was introduced to him as brother Simpson, a local preacher of the Pittsburgh Conference. After considerable persuasion the Bishop was prevailed upon to preach. What disappointment was visible upon the faces of that congregation that morning! They expected to be bored by a "country clodhopper." The Bishop gave out the opening hymn and then prayed. Those who thought they were going to be bored began to think differently, and when the Bishop announced his text, "The Greatest of all is Charity," expectation was on tiptoe. A grander, more eloquent, more feeling discourse was never delivered in that church. As the Bishop was elaborating his points and carrying his congregation to the highest pitch by the magnificent roundings of his sentences, the thought occurred to the preacher sitting in the pulpit that this must be Bishop Simpson, and upon concluding his sermon the preacher asked him: "Are you not Bishop Simpson?" The Bishop's modest and naive reply was: "They call me so at home." The preacher immediately turned, faced the congregation and said: "You have had the extreme pleasure of listening to Bishop Simpson."—Harrisburg Patriot.

A HORRIBLE WEAPON.

Near Coolidge, Kan., Mr. Harrison, a young Englishman, has established a large estate at an expense of many thousand dollars. A visiting correspondent recently found a charming guest on the place in the person of Captain Sherborne, of the British army, who, after valiant services in the Afghan campaign, is passing several years in travel. Captain Sherborne was wounded in a most singular way in Afghanistan. After a battle he found an Afghan lying on the field, with both legs shot away. He raised him in his arms to carry him to an ambulance. But the man suddenly wrenched himself away, and, standing erect on his bleeding stumps, he seized one of his own severed legs lying beside him and struck at Captain Sherborne with furious rage, making a terrible gash-down his chest with the jagged bone. He then dropped back dead, and Captain Sherborne fell fainting by his side. Sherborne says it was the most thrilling moment of his life.

THE EVILS OF PAINTING And their Remedy.

"It has been said with much truth, too, that house painting might, with study and acquirement of taste, resume its rank as a liberal art."—Painters' Manual. Believing the above to be true, A. B. KERR has now re-organized his system of working the business in Honolulu. In the first place he has secured the services of that celebrated artist, Mr. Max Kohn, formerly of San Francisco, whose work in the line of plain and decorative paper-hanging, frescoing, &c., is up to the present time unsurpassed, and on these Islands has never been equalled. For house painting jobs first-class mechanics only will be employed. In future patrons can depend upon my filling every order on the most scientific basis known to the trade. The Sign Painting and Lettering department will be permanently presided over by Mr. GEO. STRATMEYER, (further comment unnecessary.) P.S.—Send for designs of frescos for ceiling and cornices. Something new; and if you want any glass put in call at "Tiger" Paint Store, 247 1y 78 King Street.
